Incident Case #:

Summary:

The Bristol Police Department promotes Community Policing as one of its main tenants in combating crime in the city. This type of policing is a full time, year round commitment that remains fluid in addressing all types of crime. On 2/26/15, the Bristol Police Department in conjunction with the Connecticut Department of Revenue conducted spot checks at five convenience stores in Bristol. Revenue violations related to tobacco sales, tax stamps and the selling of individual cigarettes was discovered. Revenue agents made arrests and seized various tobacco products. Only one store was free of any violations. The stores inspected and the results of those inspections were as follows:

Discount Tobacco 123 Farmington Ave – no violations.

La Familia Super Deli 485 Farmington Ave – Untaxed cigarette/tobacco, loose cigarette sales; arrest made; product seized.

Tropical Market 152 School Street – Untaxed tobacco; arrest made; product seized.

Bristol Brothers 1 Divinity Street – Loose cigarette sales; no arrest made at this time.

Shop & Save 143 Divinity Street – Untaxed tobacco; arrest made; product seized.
